

REGULATION

On the procedure for admission of students to Master's degree specializations at Al-Khwarizmi University for the 2026/2027 academic year

Chapter 1. General Provisions

1. This Regulation has been developed in accordance with the Resolution of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. PQ-160 dated 30 April 2025 "On the establishment of Al-Khwarizmi University and further improvement of the system for training personnel in the field of information technologies", as well as the Minutes No. 6 of the meeting of the Supervisory Board of Al-Khwarizmi University dated 16 January 2026.

2. This Regulation defines the procedure for submitting documents for admission to the Master's degree programs of Al-Khwarizmi University (hereinafter – the University) for the 2026/2027 academic year, their review and acceptance, as well as the procedure for selecting talented applicants from among those whose documents have been accepted in accordance with the established procedure and admitting them to study.

3. The following main terms are used in this Regulation:

applicant – an individual wishing to enroll in the Master's degree programs of the University;

Admissions Committee – a collegial body established by the relevant order of the Rector of the University which, within its designated powers, coordinates the processes of submission and acceptance of applicants' documents, their review, as well as the selection of talented applicants and their admission to study;

Working Group – a group established under the Admissions Committee which, within its designated powers, carries out the processes of submission and acceptance of applicants' documents, their review, as well as the selection of talented applicants and their admission to study;

"Admission Portal" electronic platform (hereinafter – the Electronic platform) – a specially developed electronic platform created by the University to systematize the processes of submission and acceptance of applicants' documents, their review, as well as the selection of talented applicants and their admission to study;

guarantee payment – a payment introduced for an applicant recommended for admission in order to reserve their place of study at the University;

conditional offer – a document provided by the University to the applicant for the purpose of making the guarantee payment.

4. The submission of documents, their review and acceptance, the selection process, and admission to study shall be carried out in accordance with the scheme provided in Appendix 1 to this Regulation.

In this process, all procedures must be organized on the principles of equal rights, fairness, and transparency.

5. Admission to the University shall be carried out within the admission parameters approved in accordance with the established procedure and in compliance with this Regulation.

6. Each case of admission of foreign citizens shall be considered separately by the Admissions Committee and shall be conducted outside the established admission parameters.

7. An applicant may submit documents for only one Master's specialization within the approved admission parameters.

An applicant who has submitted documents for a one-year Master's specialization shall have the right to request a change of specialization through the Electronic platform until the first 2 (two) working days of the start of the 2026/2027 academic year.

An applicant who has submitted documents for a two-year Master's specialization shall have the right to request a change of specialization through the Electronic platform until the end of the document submission period for the 2026/2027 academic year.

In such cases, admission to the requested Master's specialization must be possible within the approved admission parameters established in accordance with the prescribed procedure.

Chapter 2. Submission, Review and Acceptance of Documents

§1. Submission of Documents

8. The submission of documents begins on 30 March 2026 and ends on 21 August 2026.

The closing deadline may be changed by the Admissions Committee depending on the number of applicants and applications received.

9. When submitting documents, the applicant must meet the following requirements:

have graduated from a full-time or evening higher education institution or be in the final stage of study (final year);

have English language proficiency at least at the "B2" level according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) scale.

10. Documents shall be submitted online through the Electronic platform.

11. Before submitting documents, the applicant must provide consent on the Electronic platform for the use and processing of their personal data during the admission process.

12. In order to submit documents, the applicant shall be provided with a personal account on the Electronic platform and shall enter the requested personal information.

13. The applicant must upload the electronic copies of the following documents to their personal account:

an official document confirming graduation from a higher education institution; an international certificate specified in Appendix 2 to this Regulation (hereinafter – International certificate) (if available); a certificate confirming English language proficiency specified in Appendix 3 to this Regulation. In this case, applicants whose undergraduate education was conducted in English are exempt from submitting this document.

If the documents specified in this clause are not available at the time of submission but are obtained after the submission of documents, the deadline for uploading such documents shall be 5 September 2026. If a mandatory document is not submitted, the applicant shall not be admitted to study.

14. The applicant's relevant data and photograph shall be automatically uploaded to the Electronic platform through an integrated system. If the data or photograph that should be uploaded automatically is not uploaded due to technical reasons, it must be uploaded additionally by the applicant.

The photograph must meet the following requirements:

size 3.5 cm × 4.5 cm;

format PNG / GIF / JPEG / JPG;

colored;

not exceeding 5 MB in size;

taken within the last 3 months;

with a neutral facial expression, open eyes, and shoulders visible.

15. The responsibility for submitting documents correctly, in good quality, and within the established deadlines shall rest with the applicant.

§2. Review and Acceptance of Documents

16. The submitted documents shall be reviewed by the Working Group within 5 (five) working days.

17. The authenticity of the submitted documents shall be verified based on the available possibilities.

18. After the documents are reviewed by the Working Group, the applicant shall receive a notification in their personal account regarding the review results (acceptance or rejection of the documents).

19. If deficiencies are identified in the submitted documents, the applicant must correct these deficiencies within 2 (two) working days from the moment the notification is sent, otherwise, the documents shall be rejected.

20. If the submitted documents are rejected, the reasons for rejection shall be explained to the applicant in detail.

21. The following shall serve as grounds for rejection of documents:

submission of documents after the document submission deadline has expired;

at the applicant's own request;

identification of forged or falsified documents;

submitted documents not meeting the established requirements, including cases where the text or seal impressions on the documents are copied in poor quality;

the applicant does not meet the document submission requirements.

22. After the applicant's documents have been accepted, they may be cancelled based on the applicant's written or oral request.

Chapter 3. Selection of Applicants and Formation of the Ranking List

23. The selection of applicants to the Master's degree programs shall be carried out by the Admissions Committee based on the documents submitted by the applicants.

24. Applicants must satisfy the minimum requirements specified in Clause 13 of this Regulation. Applicants who do not meet these requirements shall not be allowed to participate in the selection process.

25. Applicants who meet the minimum requirements shall be reviewed based on the selection criteria applicable to the respective Master's program, and a ranking list shall be formed accordingly.

During the selection process, the following factors shall be taken into consideration: the applicant's field of undergraduate study, whether the undergraduate program was conducted in English, the applicant's academic performance (GPA), English language proficiency, possession of relevant international certificates, and, where applicable, relevant work experience.

In this case:

For the Master's program in Applied Artificial Intelligence, the applicant must have completed a bachelor's degree in fields such as Information Technology, Computer Science, Software Engineering, Artificial Intelligence, Data Science, Applied Mathematics, Statistics, Physics, or other closely related disciplines. Preference may also be given to applicants holding international certificates specified in Appendix 2 of this Regulation, as well as to applicants whose undergraduate education was conducted in English.

For the Master's program in Business Administration (MBA), applicants may hold a bachelor's degree in any field of study. Preference may be given to applicants whose undergraduate education was conducted in English and to those who have relevant work experience in business, management, economics, finance and accounting or other related fields.

For the Master's program in Applied Linguistics and TESOL, applicants may hold a bachelor's degree in any field of study. Preference shall be given to applicants who have completed undergraduate studies in philology or linguistics (specifically English language) and to those whose undergraduate education was conducted in English.

Chapter 4. Determination and Announcement of Selection Results and Admission

26. The results of the selection process shall be determined based on the ranking list formed according to the applicable selection criteria.

27. The selection results shall be announced by the Admissions Committee within 10 (ten) working days after the completion of the document review process.

28. If the number of applicants recommended for admission exceeds the number of admission places approved in accordance with the established admission parameters, applicants shall be classified based on the ranking results as follows:

applicants recommended for admission within the admission quota;

applicants recommended for admission outside the admission quota.

In cases where applicants have equal results, priority shall be determined according to the following sequence:

preference shall be given to applicants whose undergraduate education was conducted in English; preference shall be given to applicants with a higher level of English language proficiency. If applicants possess different certificates, priority shall be determined based on the higher level of English language proficiency in accordance with Appendix 5 of this Regulation;

if applicants have the same level of English language proficiency, an additional interview may be conducted by the Admissions Committee.

29. Applicants recommended for admission outside the admission quota shall be placed on a waiting list.

30. Within 5 (five) working days after the announcement of the selection results, the Working Group shall send a conditional offer to applicants recommended for admission within the admission quota through their personal account.

31. Within 5 (five) working days from the date of receiving the conditional offer, the applicant shall pay a guarantee fee of 4 (four) million UZS to the University's bank account. This amount may be adjusted by decision of the Admissions Committee depending on the number of applicants and the volume of applications.

32. The guarantee payment shall be refunded in the following cases and within the following timeframes:

when the applicant is granted a 100 percent state scholarship in accordance with the established procedure – within 3 (three) months after the beginning of the academic year, except in cases where the student is dismissed from study during this period;

when the applicant fully pays the contract tuition fee for the current academic year through an education loan. In this case, upon submission by the applicant of a request to the University for the refund of the guarantee payment – within 10 (ten) working days after the contract tuition fee has been fully credited to the University's bank account and the applicant's request for refund of the guarantee payment has been received;

when the applicant submits a request for refund of the guarantee payment within 10 (ten) working days after the guarantee payment has been made – within 10 (ten) working days after the request for refund of the guarantee payment has been received;

when part of the tuition contract payment for female students is covered from the State Budget of the Republic of Uzbekistan – within 10 (ten) working days after part of the full contract tuition fee has been credited to the University's bank account and the applicant's request for refund of the guarantee payment has been received;

when admission is not conducted due to fewer than 15 (fifteen) applicants being recommended for admission to a particular specialization – within the first 10 (ten) working days of the beginning of the academic year for the Master's specialization.

33. The guarantee payment shall be refunded to the bank card specified by the applicant.

34. To request the refund of the guarantee payment, the applicant must send a request to the email address "admission@akhu.uz" and include the following information:

a) the applicant's full name;

b) the following information related to the bank card to which the refund is to be made:

bank name;

bank transit account number; bank MFO;

bank taxpayer identification number (TIN);

bank card account number.

A copy of the passport or ID card of the bank card holder must be attached to this request.

35. Except for the cases provided for in Clause 32 of this Regulation, the guarantee payment made shall not be refunded in all other cases.

36. If an applicant recommended for admission within the admission parameters fails to make the guarantee payment in accordance with the established procedure or refuses to study at the University, such applicant shall be removed from the list of applicants recommended for admission within the admission parameters, and the next applicant in the ranking shall be placed in their position. Accordingly, the applicant from the waiting list shall be included in the list of applicants recommended for admission within the admission parameters.

37. The Working Group shall regularly update the list of applicants recommended for admission within the admission parameters and shall send a conditional offer through the applicant's personal account on the same day to an applicant who is transferred from the waiting list to the list of applicants recommended for admission within the admission parameters.

In this case, the applicant shall be given 5 (five) working days from the date the conditional offer is sent to make the guarantee payment.

38. If an applicant who was recommended for admission within the admission parameters fails to make the guarantee payment in accordance with the established procedure or refuses to study at the University, and subsequently submits a request to be re-included in the list of applicants recommended for admission within the admission parameters, such applicant may be admitted to the list depending on the availability of vacant places.

39. The Working Group shall form the final list of applicants recommended for admission within the admission parameters within the first 5 (five) working days of the beginning of the academic year for the Master's specialization. If fewer than 15 (fifteen) applicants are recommended for admission to a particular specialization, admission to that specialization shall not be conducted.

Chapter 5. Appeal Procedure

40. An applicant may submit an appeal complaint (application) regarding the selection results to the Admissions Committee through their personal account within 3 (three) working days after the results are announced. This period may be changed by a relevant decision of the Admissions Committee.

41. The appeal complaint shall be registered in accordance with the procedure established by the Admissions Committee, reviewed within 5 (five) working days, formalized by an appropriate decision, and the applicant shall be notified on the same day through their personal account.

42. If the applicant's complaint (application) is satisfied, the selection results shall be reviewed again and the relevant amendments shall be made. The decision of the Admissions Committee shall be final.

Chapter 6. Final Provisions

43. Amendments and additions to this Regulation shall be introduced on the basis of the relevant order of the Rector of the University, except for the cases specified in this Regulation.

44. Disputes arising in the application of this Regulation shall be resolved in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation.

45. Persons found guilty of violating the requirements of this Regulation shall be held liable in accordance with the legislation.
